

April 12, 1973

on account of federal regulations we had promised to have this on there and I'd like to move that the emergency clause be adopted.

CLERK: The first motion would have to be to return it to Select File.

SENATOR KENNEDY: Oh, excuse me, I make a motion to return it to Select File for the emergency clause.

SPEAKER: Any discussion? Ready for the question? This requires 25 votes, all those...Pardon me, Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: On the front page of this bill it says and to declare an emergency.

SENATOR KENNEDY: Some way it got left off the bill and I apologize. It was originally on there. Am I correct, Vince?

CLERK: Well, it's in the original bill unless it was struck somewhere along the line. No, it's in the original bill.

SENATOR KENNEDY: Are we still all right then? I was told here about an hour ago that it got lost in the transaction. Are you sure since it came back we're all right.

CLERK: Well, they didn't, they don't strike that.

SENATOR KENNEDY: I know it was originally on there so I...

SENATOR MARSH: It's on my copy. On page 4...

CLERK: It's on all the original copies and there's no where where it's been struck so it should still be on there.

SENATOR KENNEDY: All right...

SPEAKER: Senator, do you want to ask unanimous consent to withdraw your motion for the time being?

SENATOR KENNEDY: Yes, and I apologize for that. I was told just a little bit ago... Thank you.

SPEAKER: So ordered.

CLERK: Now Mr. President--reads reports. I have an Attorney General's opinion, Mr. President, that should be in the journal. Reads.

SPEAKER: It will be printed in the Journal. Now, is there a motion on the Clerk's desk?

CLERK: I have a motion to adjourn until 10:00 Monday.

SPEAKER: Question is to adjourn to adjourn until 10:00 a.m. Monday. All those in favor of this motion say aye, those opposed say no. The motion is to adjourn until 10:00 a.m. Monday. All those in favor vote aye, all those opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Voting on the question--the motion is to adjourn until Monday at 10:00 a.m. Have you all voted? I am instructing my assistant to turn off all microphones and I declare this august body adjourned.
